FIGHT STARTS IN A SALOON

After Officer Had Beaten Man In-sensible, He Flees, Pursued by Two Men Runs Into Tenement—Jumps Out of Window, Fracturing Skull.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Shortly after midnight this morning a man who was later identified as John W. Holmes, 64 years old, an engineer and machinist, of 435 Fifty-fifth street, was found unconscious in the gutter at Fifth avenue and Thirty-ninth street, suffering from a fracture of the skull and lower jaw. He was attended by Ambulance Surgeon Bongarde and removed to the Norwegian Hospital.

Detective who were detailed on the case learned that Holmes, at about midnight, was in a saloon at the corner where he was found, with a party of friends. An argument developed, which resulted in a fight. It was adjourned to the sidewalk, where Holmes was knocked down by an unknown man and beaten and kicked into insensibility.

His assailant fled and was chased by two of Holmes' friends to Fortieth street, where they saw him dash into the hallway of a tenement. They made a search for the man, but were unable to find him.

At about 4:30 o'clock this morning Mrs. John Ryan, of 400 Fortieth street, was awakened by the sound of groans which proceeded from the rear of the house. On opening a window she discovered a man lying on a shed in the rear of the house and notified the police.

Ambulance Surgeon Bongarde was again summoned and found that the man's skull was fractured. He was in citizen's clothes, but wore a policeman's shield, by which he was identified as Policeman Patrick McCarthy, 33 years old, whose home is at 4516 Sixth avenue.

The police believe that he is the assailant of Holmes and that in trying to escape from his pursuers he jumped from the window to the shed and received his injuries in that way.

Both men were removed to the Norwegian Hospital and are in a critical condition. As neither has regained consciousness it has been impossible to get a statement.

THIEF CAUGHT.

Boy Fifteen Years Old Detected Robbing Railroad Station.

NEW HYDE PARK, Jan. 7.—The thief who has been robbing the Long Island railroad station at this place systematically for the last two years was caught early today by Detective A. E. Wilson, and turned out to be Frederick Dahlman, 15 years old, of Floral Park. The robberies have been a source of mystery.

Last night Detective Wilson secreted himself in the loft of the station. Shortly after 3 o'clock this morning he heard a noise at one of the windows, and saw the boy go through the sash, and wrench off the gate-lock of the ticket agent's room with a poke, and open the till. The detective covered the thief with his revolver.

In his confession Dahlman said that he was of a good family, but that during the last two years, finding the job so easy, he had been in the habit of robbing the station frequently for pin money. It is thought that he has robbed other stations. The amounts have always been from $10 to $15.

Dahlman was before Magistrate Remsen in the Roslyn court house this morning, and was sent to the Rochester Industrial School for Correction.

Cured Lumbago.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 4, 1905. "Having been troubled with Lumbago, at different times and tried one physician after another then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of sufferers." Sold by Hart's drug store.
